GREEN BOOK

Cert: 12A

130 Mins

Friday 3rd May at 7.30pm

Comedy/Drama

Director: Peter Farelly

Cast includes: Viggo Mortensen, Mahershala Ali, Linda Cardellini, Dimeter Marinov

This film won an Oscar for Best Picture and John Nugent, writing in Empire, can see why: "A supremely likeable film. Its message might seem obvious, but it boasts a warm heart with two astoundingly good lead performances to guide it home". Dr Don Shirley is a world-class African-American pianist, who is about to embark on a concert tour in the Deep South in 1962. In need of a driver and, more important, in need of protection, he recruits Tony Lip, a tough-talking Italian-American bouncer from the Bronx. They develop an unexpected bond while confronting racism and danger in an era of segregation. Tense and heart-warming.

FREE SOLO

Cert: 12A

100 Mins

Saturday 4th May at 7.30pm

Documentary

Director: Jimmy Chin and Elizabeth Chai Vasarhelyi

Cast includes: Alex Honnold

Professional rock climber Alex Honnold attempts the greatest challenge of his career: the first free solo climb of famed El Capitan's 900-metre vertical rock face at Yosemite National Park. Free solo climbers use no ropes or assistance. Even experienced climbers have said that they feel queasy watching this film. Honnold's preparation is complicated by falling in love with a new girlfriend, Sanni. Helen O'Hara in Empire says, "This is daring, dangerous and dizzying stuff, one man simultaneously in competition and cooperation with nature". Watch it if you dare.

COLETTE

Cert: 15

112 Mins

Friday 10th May at 7.30pm

Period/Drama/Biopic

Wine will be served prior to the performance

Director: Wash Westmorland

Cast includes: Keira Knightly, Eleanor Tomlinson, Dominic West, Fiona Shaw, Aiysha Hart

A young woman, initially naïve and innocent, marries a dashing but decadent literary impresario. He sets her to work writing racy semi-autobiographical novels which he then publishes under his own name. The books become hugely popular and Colette must fight for recognition. Jordan Hoffman in The Guardian says, "It's fresh, funny and genuinely inspiring... with Knightly in top form".

VICE

Cert: 15

132 Mins

Saturday 11th May at 7.30pm

Biographical/Drama

Wine will be served prior to the performance

Director: Adam McKay

Cast includes: Christian Bale, Amy Adams, Steve Carell, Bill Pullman, Sam Rockwell

This is a black comedy charting the rise of Vice President Dick Cheney, who became the most powerful vice-president in American history. The comedy is provided by the director's decision to splice the story with asides and surreal metaphors. Owen Gleiberman in Variety says, "The best lines go to Amy Adams as his ambitious wife and to Steve Carell as Donald Rumsfeld, his snake-eyed mentor. And Sam Rockwell is terrific as a clueless Bush". Not to be missed, even by those for whom politics is a turn-off.

HIDDEN GEM

DONKEYOTE

Spanish with subtitles

Cert: 15

86 Mins

Friday 17th May at 7.30pm

Documentary

Director: Chico Pereira

Cast includes: Paca Molera Pereira, Mamon Gomez Hereira, Manuel Molera Aparicio

This is the story of the director's eccentric uncle Manuel, aged 73, who roams the countryside in Andalucia with his donkey Gorrión never far from his side. He is planning the trek of a lifetime, 2,000 miles across the USA, and he is taking Gorrión along as his Sancho Panza. Cath Clarke in The Guardian describes it as "a warmly funny, affectionate one-man-and-his-donkey road movie... What's so lovely here is Manuel's warmth and humanity – the way he lives with regrets and disappointment". A charming film.

COLETTE

Cert: 15

112 Mins

Saturday 18th May at 7.30pm
Period/Drama/Biopic

Director: Wash Westmorland

Cast includes: Keira Knightly, Eleanor Tomlinson, Dominic West, Fiona Shaw, Aiysha Hart

A young woman, initially naïve and innocent, marries a dashing but decadent literary impresario. He sets her to work writing racy semi-autobiographical novels which he then publishes under his own name. The books become hugely popular and Colette must fight for recognition. Jordan Hoffman in The Guardian says, "It's fresh, funny and genuinely inspiring... with Knightly in top form".

THE FAVOURITE

Cert: 15

119 Mins

Friday 24th May at 7.30pm
Period/Drama

Director: Yorgos Lanthimos

Cast includes: Olivia Colman, Emma Stone, Rachel Weisz, Nicholas Hoult, Mark Gatiss

Olivia Colman, in her 2019 Oscar winning performance, plays a frumpy Queen Anne, on the edge of madness after losing 17 children at birth. She confides in her beautiful and strong-minded friend and adviser the Duchess of Marlborough. But then a poor cousin, Abigail, arrives in court and challenges the Duchess for her attention. The power struggle between the women becomes almost lethal. Deborah Ross in The Spectator says "There is hot lesbian sex, duck racing, vertiginous wigs and an astonishingly weird dance scene, and yet it manages to be deeply moving. I don't just recommend you see this film. I command it".

RALPH BREAKS THE INTERNET

Cert: PG

112 Mins

Saturday 25th May at 7.30pm
Adventure/Animation

Director: Rich Moore, Phil Johnston

Cast includes: John C. Reilly, Sarah Silverman, Gal Gadot, Alan Tudyk, Kristen Bell

In this sequel to Disney's "Wreck It Ralph", video game players Ralph and his fellow misfit Vanellope must take the risk of travelling right into the World Wide Web in search of a replacement part to save Vanellope's video game. In over their heads, they must rely on citizens of the internet, The Netizens, to help them find their way. Jonathon Pile in Empire says, "It is sharp and knowing, it is also a triumph of animation and characterisation". Although rated PG, this film is in parts quite scary. It is not suitable for very young children but teenagers of all ages will love it.

THE MULE

Cert: 15

116 Mins

Friday 31st May at 7.30pm
Drama

Wine will be served prior to the performance

Director: Clint Eastwood

Cast includes: Clint Eastwood, Bradley Cooper, Laurence Fishburne, Michael Pena, Jill Flint

Eastwood plays an 88-year old florist who has fallen on hard times and becomes an unlikely drugs mule for Mexican gangsters. An ambitious police agent enters the picture and the net begins to tighten. Although hard to believe, this is based on a true story. As well as being a thriller it is also a meditation on aging, a road movie and a family melodrama. Geoffrey Macnab in The Independent says, "Eastwood plays the lead and still steals scenes from under the noses of younger actors like Bradley Cooper and Andy Garcia".
